Write AT LEAST 400 WORDS on ONE of the following.

1. A well known car company has announced a competition for young people. In order to win a new car, you must express, in a persuasive manner, your views on the best forms of transportation in the next ten years.
2. In a recent letter your friend from another country recounted childhood memories which included a description of a favourite game. Respond to this letter describing your favourite childhood game, its important rules and strategies, and some associated memories.
3. You have recently visited an elderly person whom you admire very much. Write a diary entry about your visit, reflecting on this person's qualities and what you have learned about, and from, him or her.
4. The local arts centre in the town where you live will shortly be hosting a literary festival. As part of this festival young people have been asked to speak about a literary text that has influenced them in some way. You have decided to focus on a character you admire or with whom you identify. Write the text of your talk.
5. You have been asked to make a presentation as part of a sports education conference in your region. The focus should be on one of the following areas:
  - outdoor versus indoor sports
  - individual versus team sports.

Write the text of your presentation.

6. In last week's newspaper you read an article in which it was argued that pollution is currently the most serious environmental problem in your country. Write a letter to the editor of the newspaper either agreeing or disagreeing with this view.
